

£120
buys a wheelchair

This is Kithsiri. Before receiving this wheelchair he was unable to leave his home for 18 months. Motivation provides people in low-income countries with appropriate mobility and training to live their lives to the full. There are an estimated 20 million people in the world who need a wheelchair and can't get one that suits their needs. Just £120 transformed Kithsiri's life, and with your support Motivation can transform many more.
